Mondraker Enduro2 Davos, December 2018

Factsheet Mondraker Enduro2 Davos 2019

Short Portrait

Mondraker Enduro2 Davos is an alpine mountain bike enduro race for teams of two in Davos Klosters, Switzerland. The focus here is on having fun on the region's first-class trails and on the camaraderie within the international mountain bike community.

Date

The third edition of Mondraker Enduro2 Davos will take place from Thursday, September 5 to Saturday, September 7, 2019. It is recommended to arrive the day before and leave the day after at the earliest.

Venue

Mondraker Enduro2 Davos will be held on the first-class trail network of Davos Klosters in the Swiss Alps.

Event area

The start-finish-area is located at the restaurant Bolgen Plaza in Davos Platz, right next to Jakobshorn cable car.

Race format

Mondraker Enduro2 in Davos is a mountain bike enduro race for teams of two. After the prologue on the first day, several "stages" are to be completed daily. The measured stages are sections of a few minutes duration, which mainly lead downhill. The two members of a team always ride together, time runs from the moment the first biker crosses the starting line until the second crosses the finish line. In the three race days between 15 and 20 measured stages are covered. The transfers in between are done biking, often supported by the mountain railway network of the region.

Course

The total distance is around 120 kilometres, with approximately 1500 metres of elevation gain including transfers and around 12,000 metres of downhill.

Participants

Max. 450 people (225 teams of 2) from a very international community. 14 nations from Europe and overseas were represented in 2018.

Requirements

As the race takes place in very alpine surroundings on partly very rough trails, the event is only suitable for experienced and advanced mountain bikers. Minimum age is 16 years (between 16 and 18 years only with the written consent of a parent or legal guardian).

Organization

Originally planned as a race of a small Enduro series for teams of two by the British, but quickly insolvent organizer Trail Addiction, Mondraker Enduro2 in Davos was separated from the bankruptcy estate before its premiere in 2017 and has since been run as an independent event by the local club Bike Events Davos. The leading roles are held by Michi and Britta Wild from the Bike Academy Davos.

Partner

From 2019 Mondraker will be the title sponsor of the event in Davos, which is now called "Mondraker Enduro2". Further partners are the destination Davos Klosters, the mountain railways Davos Klosters Mountains, the Bike Academy Davos and Graubünden Sport.
