Short Portrait

MONDRAKER ENDURO TEAM is an alpine mountain bike enduro race for teams in Davos Klosters, Switzerland. The focus is on having fun on the region's first-class trails and on the camaraderie within the international mountain bike community. The 2021 edition was sold out within 4 days.

Date

The fifth edition of MONDRAKER ENDURO TEAM in Davos will take place from Thursday, September 2nd, to Saturday, September 4th, 2021. It is recommended to arrive the day before and leave the day after at the earliest.

Venue

MONDRAKER ENDURO TEAM is held on the first-class trail network of Davos Klosters in the Swiss Alps.

Event area

The start-finish-area is located at the Chalet After7 in Davos Platz, right next to Jakobshorn cable car.

Race format

MONDRAKER ENDURO TEAM in Davos is a mountain bike enduro race for teams. Several "stages" are to be completed daily. The measured stages are sections of a few minutes duration, which mainly lead downhill. The members of a team always ride together, time runs from the moment the first biker crosses the starting line until the last one crosses the finish line. In the three race days between 10 and 15 measured stages are covered. The transfers in between are done biking, often supported by the mountain railway network of the region.

Course

The total distance is around 150 kilometres, with approximately 1900 metres of elevation gain including transfers and more than 10,000 metres of downhill.

Participants

450 people in different team sizes, very international community. 17 nations, mainly from Europe but also overseas, are on the 2021 starting list.

As the race takes place in very alpine surroundings on partly technically demanding trails, the event is only suitable for experienced and advanced mountain bikers. Minimum age is 16 years (between 16 and 18 years only with the written consent of a parent or legal guardian).

Costs

The entry fee per team of two is CHF 405, per FUN TEAM CHF 699, incl. welcome drink, team start numbers, timing, results service, lift ticket for 3 days, lunch on Friday and Saturday, ENDURO TEAM Night. Accommodation packages in various classes from camping to 4 stars can be booked separately.

Registration

Registration for the 2021 edition opened 4th December 2020. The event was sold out within 4 days, 70 teams are still on the waiting list.

Organization

Originally planned as a race of a small Enduro series for teams of two by a British, but quickly insolvent organizer, the event in Davos was separated from the bankruptcy estate already before its premiere in 2017 and has since been run as an independent event by the local club Bike Events Davos. Since 2020 the events name is MONDRAKER ENDURO TEAM. The leading roles are held by Michi and Britta Wild from the Bike Academy Davos.

Partners

Since 2019 Mondraker is the title sponsor of the event in Davos. Further partners are the destination Davos Klosters, the mountain railways Davos Klosters Mountains, the Bike Academy Davos, Graubünden Sport, komoot, dirtlej and Mudhugger.
