1. DANGERS AND RISKS

The participant is completely aware of the dangers and risks that come with mountain biking. The participant acknowledges that to strive for excellent performance during a race involves certain risks. The participant accepts that with the performance of such a competitive sport, life and physical safety can be endangered. This includes threats to everybody in the competition, particularly due to environmental and atmospheric conditions, technical equipment, hazards of public roads and natural and artificial obstacles. In case of driving on public roads the participant accepts the rules of the local road traffic regulations.

2. DECLARATION OF NON-LIABILITY

The participant...

...declares herewith that his participation at the Enduro-Team in Davos Klosters is at his own risk.

...confirms to own a valid accident and liability insurance for the duration of the event.

...waives all legal claims – including third parties – in the event and confirmed this by submitting the online form and with the signature on this form.

...declares that his training and health status meets the requirements of the race.

...resigns to any claims concerning the organizer in case of cancellation of the event due to force majeure, modifications of Covid19 regulations, cancellation of security reasons or modifications of the schedule.

The organizer reserves the right to make subsequent amendments to the rules and the route due to weather conditions, security reasons, and so on.

The organizer takes no liability for loss or damage of the participant's personal belongings. Similarly, the organizer is not liable for any damage incurred during transportation of bicycles on motor vehicles, trailers or in the use of lifts.

3. CIRCULATION OF PICTURES/VIDEOS - USE OF RIGHTS

As participant of the Enduro-Team in Davos Klosters the participant agrees that pictures and videos of himself can be taken by the organizer (respectively commissioned photographers/filmmakers) in the context of the participation at the event. The participant agrees that these pictures can be published and publicly exposed. Furthermore, he agrees that pictures, videos, film tapes and interviews with his participation can be published in media, press, radio and TV broadcasting, advertising, books, photomechanical copying and video tapes. The participant declares to assign an unrestricted right on eventual rights on pictures to the organizer of the Enduro-Team in Davos. The participant agrees that he won't receive a salary for the depiction on pictures and videos produced.

The participant declares that the organizer of the event has pointed out that the participant is not able to declare any copyright law on the pictures and films produced. The participant agrees that the organizer owns the exclusive and unrestricted rights of use of the pictures and videos that are taken of his person. The participant agrees that he can use pictures and films with his participation (made by commissioned photographers/ filmmakers) only with an official agreement of the organizer. This means, the participant is only allowed to publish, copy and publicly customize pictures/videos of himself with an official agreement of the organizer.
